White Wine Selection

Sauvignon Blanc

Esk Valley Sauvignon Blanc from Marlborough New Zealand. Traditionally made using a blend of grapes grown in Marlborough's Wairau and Awatere Valleys. Crafted in a dry aromatic style giving a full flavoured wine.

Sauvignon/ Semillon

McHenry Hohnen Sauvignon Semillon, Margaret River, Australia. Aromas of fresh gooseberry and passion fruit dominate tropical fruit aromas, working neatly into a generous mix of freshly cut grass and lemon citrus.

Pouilly-Fumé

Pouilly-Fumé, Les Champs de Cris. Aromas of gunflint and freshly cut grass mingle with a fruity undercurrent of gooseberries culminating in a crisp balanced finish.

Chablis

Chablis Domaine Daniel Dampt, France. Dry, full, intense, subtly stony with complex green flavours. A super example of what Chardonnay can taste like.

Red Wine Selection

Carmenère

Turi, Chile. Deep aromas of mature fruits like blackberries and herbs. Peppery notes, intense and juicy in the mouth with silky texture and subtle oak.

Rioja

Rioja Vega Crianza, Spain. An award winning wine made from Tempranillo, Mazuelo and Granacha grapes resulting in a complex wine, rich in aromas and flavours.

Shiraz Grenache Mataro

McHenry Hohnen 3 Amigos Shiraz/Grenache/Mataro Margaret River, Australia. Red berries flavours from the mataro, floral lift from the grenache, and tobacco undertones from the shiraz: a generous red blend.

Cote de Beaune Villages

Cote de Beaune Villages, Louis Latour, Burgundy (2007). A beautifully soft rounded red, 100% Pinot Noir full of summer fruits.

Rose Wine Selection

Route 66

Boulevard, White Zinfandel, California. An easy drinking blush bursting with strawberries, watermelon and summer fruits.
